

Hispanic Foundation of Silicon Valley “La Familia Award” Nomination Criteria for 2011

The Hispanic Foundation of Silicon Valley recognizes and awards an exemplary Latino Familia that is inspirational to others, in community volunteerism and philanthropy. A family that has demonstrated multi-generational volunteerism within their family and has had a tremendous impact in the community they serve.

- The nominated family must be current residents of Santa Clara, San Mateo, Alameda, Santa Cruz, or San Benito counties.
- The nominated family must be a Latino family. (50% of the adults must be of Latino heritage)
 - Grandparents and Foster Children can be included if they are community volunteers
- The nominated family should demonstrate multi-generational levels of active community volunteerism. For example, a Latino family in which a Grandparent, Child, and Grandchild demonstrated community volunteerism. They must agree to be a part of the Hispanic Foundation volunteer corp.
- Evidence that the nominated family had made a valuable impact in volunteer service to the community where they live.
 - These volunteer activities must not be a part of their employment duties
 - The nominated family should demonstrate multi-generational family volunteer contributions
- The nominated family should demonstrate multi-generational family volunteer contributions. They would positively exude Latino family and cultural values. Evidence that the nominated family serves as role models, whose contributions have inspired others to give back to the Hispanic community.